Join Brushes and Bottles owner and instructor Annette Watkins and she guides you step-by-step using the Angelo Method. Even if you draw stick figures don't be shy. Our method is proven to have success and in step-by-step, easy to follow methods. We make drawing fun!

Materials: Drawing Pencils (B, 2B, 3B, 4B, 5B, 6B); art gum eraser (looks like grey chewing gum), drawing journal/book-So You Thought You Could't Draw TM by Sandra McFail Angelo.  Note: Books can be purchased for a discount from instructor. Paper for a final project will be determined with each student based on project selection. Optional: Bring ICDT attitude (I Can Do This) and prepare to have fun.

Annette Watkins is the founder and owner of Brushes and Bottles based in Fort Myers, Florida. Brushes and Bottles kicked-off in September 2008 to sell out crowds craving a creative outlet. Since graduating from Virginia Commonwealth University in 1997 she has also worked for The City of Fort Myers and The City of Ventura Cultural Affairs Division. These jobs have included management of arts, cultural programs and public art collections. Her extensive art education has included studies in Italy at Accademia di Belle Arti Pietro Vannucci and Istituto Lorenzo di Medici. She completed an honors internship at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts and has worked with top consultants in the field of Public Art. In her role of as an art educator Annette has taught within the Lee County Public School System. Today she offers a wide range of programs and services- from beginner painting classes to private events for groups. Future business goals encompass the production of an online art gallery and expansion of Painting Parties on a national level.
