Ms. Lori Madl hails from St. Louis, Missouri where she began dancing at the age of three. After dancing competitively and performing professionally at Six Flags Over St. Louis, she decided to make dance her life. Ms. Madl received her B.A. in Dance from the University of Kansas, Lawrence where she resided for eight years. Post graduation she taught dance to all ages and performed with a touring company, the "Prairie Wind Dancers." While pursuing her Master's Degree in Arts Administration at Indiana University, Bloomington, she taught and choreographed as Associate Instructor for the African American Dance Company, and Beginning Modern Dance courses.

In addition to working as the Executive Assistant at the Alliance for the Arts and teaching dance in Lee County, Ms. Lori is a member of Dance Alliance, the resident Dance Company of the Alliance for the Arts, and chair of the Dance Alliance Workshop. Ms. Madl's choreography was showcased in Art Royale 2006, "Metamorphosis" accompanied by the voices of the Southwest Florida Symphony Chamber Chorus and with the "Calendar Girls", a non-profit dance team made up of women age 50 and older who raise money for Southeastern Guide Dogs, Paws for Patriots.
